

Son 2:10,11 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

I am NOT a winter person and we have seen more than our share of winter. I know I am not the only one that has been through a rough winter so let's all pray for "heavenly weather" either here or preferably in heaven...thus the verse above. Where is global warming when you need it?

Here is what is going on in our ministry in Romania. We have had several visitors lately and a few of them have received the Lord. Here is a photo of Adrian dealing with two young boys who visited. They come by my house and ask for food, and money. We usually give them food but not the money. I finally persuaded them to come with me on Sunday AM and now they have a new Provider. Praise the Lord.

Here also, is a photo of a man who walked in off the street and soon trusted the Lord as Cornel dealt with him.

We had Cornel and Mary Moisuk and their two gorgeous girls over for dinner and here is a photo from that event. Mary Bethany just loves the girls and they sure do take to her.

Two of our families got together for a special on Sunday PM. We love this and promote it very much.

As we continue to make plans for our departure from Romania in August the church here continues to show very positive signs of standing on its own...Praise the Lord.

BOOKS

Please stay tuned for this brief commercial.

Two of my books are presently available to be ordered online.

Sermons for Life

This is a book of simple sermon outlines for either devotion or preaching. Several of these take you step by step through some very effective object lessons and illustrations. This would be a good book to give to any preacher either veteran or beginner and would also be a very useful tool for anyone who is responsible for preparing devotions. Try it...you'll like it.

A TRIBUTE TO A COMMON MAN

This is an enjoyable brief read. This book would be an ideal gift for Father's Day...for the man who has everything. This would be great if pastors wanted to give all the men in his church just an inexpensive but nice gift for Father's Day. This is the true story of the best man I ever knew...My Father. This story reflects some adventure stories from the Great Depression era...Simpler times...Harder times...Better men.

SUMMER BIBLE INSTITUTE

How about getting a great basic Bible education in one summer while visiting and serving on a mission field. Bro. Logan and I will be teaching a crash Bible Institute course for serious minded servants of the Lord this summer in Romania. Why not pray about it. All information is attached.

Please pray for us. We are facing a breathtaking schedule for the next year. This schedule would cause a younger man to waver...maybe that is why the Lord put this on me and my family...HA... Thanks for your friendship and support and let us hear back from you.
