

HOME again...HOME again...jiggedy jig

Pro 16:9 A man's heart deviseth his way; but the LORD directeth his steps.

One year ago we sat in our kitchen in Romania after our family altar and devised an intricate plan for a very taxing and complicated year. At that time we had the full responsibility of the ministry in Romania upon us because the Logan family was in the USA on furlough. We had to schedule the upcoming Crash Bible Institute. We had to move all our worldly junk into a container. We had to pack for multi-weather climate for 5 months in USA. We planned for Mary to attend College in Bowie, TX. I had to make meetings to present the new ministry in PI. We had to make plans for the container to be shipped to PI and for us to travel from Romania to US and then five months later to PI. We knew we were facing a horrendous year of transition with a billion potential problems and disappointments. Well, here is my report at the end of such a year. EVERY SINGLE POINT OF OUR PLAN HAS THE GOOD LORD ALLOWED TO BRING TO COMPLETE FRUITION. PRAISE HIS HOLY NAME.

CONTAINER ARRIVED AT MIDNIGHT

After six long months of waiting, planning, failed ETA's, prayer and anxieties the 40 ft. container arrived from Romania in front of our home at midnight...yea, what a great time to move in. The neighbors appreciated the all night excitement when 30 Filipinos showed up just as spry as if they had just awakened from an excellent night's sleep. It had rained for four consecutive days and it rained shortly after we finished but NOT DURING THE UNLOADING TIME. In about one hour and maybe 10 minutes they had all under roof. Quite a feat in the middle of the night walking on 4x4's across 8 inches of mud. When we finally found the box we were looking for (the last one) we were all fagged out including Paprika...note photo...but we are all home safe and sound...except Mary who completes her school in mid-May but then goes to the Amazon on a missions trip with our home church, THEN she comes home with us in PI.

ROBIN KEEPS BUSY IN THE PRINTING MINISTRY

Note the photo of Robin doing the never-ending handwork in the printing ministry. Robin is folding individual pages of a parallel Bible. Many are involved with this.

A FALSE BALANCE IS ABOMINATION

Note the photo of the guy with the sack on his head...casually walking down the street in front of my home. You think you have good balance...try this sometime...this is a common sight here...
