

SWAT REPORT #147 09-25-10

Luk 15:7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

WORLDLY CELEBRATIONS

When you think about it for just a little while, the celebrations of the world are quite silly. Flag Day, Labor Day, Grandparents' Day, Valentine's Day, bank holidays (in Great Britain). What is there about these days that is so great...it might be that the world is so far from righteousness that it really doesn't have anything to celebrate at all. In these first two photos Brasov is celebrating 775 years of existence as a city.

Whooooopeeeee. Notice the old costumes and weapons...if these guys didn't get paid for this they wouldn't be caught dead in these outfits.

ETERNAL CELEBRATIONS

As I was preaching during a recent street meeting I couldn't help noticing, amidst the general apathy, a man who was paying careful attention to each word I spoke. In this day of dull ears and cold hearts a person with this response tends to stand out. He moved closer and we all became keenly aware of his unusual interest. As soon as I finished he was on me with questions...and more questions...Bro. Logan came to help and Adrian came to lend linguistic assistance. As it happened, the man tuned in to Bro. Logan and they delved into the Word of God. When the surface questions were satisfied he was asked if he would like to be saved right now. This photo displays the answer to that question. Now this is something to celebrate for all eternity.

Luk 15:7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

READING THE BIBLE TOO LOUDLY

This story borders on the incredible. We have preached on the streets of Brasov now for six years. We have had many police encounters from time to time but have never been shut down. The encounters seem to come in waves, that is, the police come and make major threats and even cart a few of us off in a paddy wagon and grill us at the station and then make us walk home. Then there will be a long lull when they leave us completely alone. We have been ALL THROUGH the legal thing...believe me, we are within the legal right to do what we are doing. Well, a few weeks ago the police got hot on us once again and they threatened Bro. Logan with giving him a ticket for violation of...whatever they thought we violated... Bro. Logan asked the policeman to write the ticket with the exact wording reflecting the particular violation. We have received these threats in the past and the ticket never comes in the mail. But this time Bro. Logan received a ticket in the mail that accurately states the violation as “Reading the Bible too loudly in public”. Can you believe this horrible Laodicean atrocity...oh, what terrible people Christians have become in these last days.

So now he must go to court and face a judge for a decision as to whether this constitutes any violation. This is all funny to all of us...BUT...since the decision rests completely on the judge, and anything can happen with a little monetary help in this warmed over communist government, PLEASE PRAY FOR A REASONABLE MAN ON THE BENCH...SO THIS THING CAN BE SETTLED ONCE AND FOR ALL.

Celebrating for eternity on the eastern front.
