

SEMESTER BREAK.....HA...HA...HA

PSA 55:6 AND I SAID, OH THAT I HAD WINGS LIKE A DOVE! FOR THEN WOULD I FLY AWAY, AND BE AT REST.

I understand the Psalmist's desire in the scripture above but sometimes it just doesn't work that way. Our ministerial plate is full and we keep busy for our good Lord but the idea of getting away and being at rest is just that...a good idea. We are on a semester break and I flew to Manila for a combination of ministry and visa business...but I did not find rest. I preached in several churches and Bible Institutes but was sick with mild flu before I left and only got worse. I had to cancel several appointments and fly home early in order to rest.

Photo #1 shows a banner over the street in Tarlac where I was honoured to preach at Jonathan Pascual's church for his 16th church anniversary. Robin and I were used of the Lord to inspire Jonathan to quit his good job and pour his energies full time into this work nearly 19 years ago. The Lord has surely blessed.

SEMESTER BREAK FUN TIME

The rest of the photos show some students and Pastor Tago's son during "popcorn preaching"...reach into a bag...grab an item and preach or teach for 1-3 minutes. I use the squirt gun mercilessly when they go overtime. Ready---Aim---Fire. The students really enjoy these pizza fun times.

HOLY WATER???

Just a few yards from where I stayed in Manila was a huge Catholic church. I looked inside and asked to take photos...but I was more taken by the "HOLY WATER" jug than the "iconary". Photo # 5. I wish I had had some of this holy water in my squirt gun for the students they may have preached better...ha...ha...ha.Having fun serving the good Lord in Philippines...
