

SINGING AND TESTIFYING TO SICK AND IN PRISON

Mat 25:36 ...I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

In a home for retired Catholic priests our students ministered to a retired priest and bishop....not every day a Bible believer gets that opportunity. The priest (Romeo) is saved and he put clothes on the statues in his church and turned their faces to the wall. The bishop rebuked him for this. Romeo and that same bishop heard the singing and testimonies of our students this past week. In photo they are in the wheel chairs.

2,000 YEARS OF CHURCH HISTORY IN 8 CLASS HOURS... IMPOSSIBLE

No, we did it last week. A street preaching friend, Michael Alford did an excellent job teaching this course to our school, our church, and our pastors. Very well done and I highly recommend him. Bro. Alford would love to come to the mission field and work but he is just getting started on that project. He might consider coming to your church or school and presenting this class (912-673-1216). He has slides and a well written curriculum that he might let you copy. Our people really enjoyed it.

He is seen here riding a caribou. We tell all our visitors this is something they all MUST DO...this keeps the number of visitors to a minimum...ha.

He is also seen here preaching inside the city jail. We all enjoyed his visit.

A THREEFOLD CORD IS NOT QUICKLY BROKEN

Our partnership stands in front of a beautiful world map that my daughter Mary Bethany painted on our church/school back wall. On the right is James Manalo (Mary's blood brother) who is my Filipino partner and things would not operate without him. Greg Stedman is on the left and he makes all things run a bit more smoothly. I am tucked behind Greg...he also is my body guard. We are all pointing to the Philippines. We all work very well together without jealousies, envies or politics.

SAL PURSUDES A MAN

Sal is getting ready to graduate in January. He will receive a Bachelor of Ministries degree and he deserves it. Here he is playing the part of Philip and preaching Jesus to a man with an open Bible. We regularly have quite a few folks saved...we just don't report them all the time. All of our graduates are instant to preach, pray or witness on a moment's notice.

SANTA READS HIS HOLY BIBLE

Some simple Christmas cheer for the simple minded. Be encouraged as you view Santa Clause reading his Bible propped upon his belly... "Read your Bible, pray every day and you'll grow, grow, grow."
