

Record Breaking Days

SWAT Report #238

Dec. 14, 2015

In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, if any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.
John 7:37

While most of life is routine, once in a while, the good Lord gives us a great day or two to feast on. I don't mind the routine, but I sure enjoy the feast days; don't you? We have been "attacking" the six colleges in our city and bombarding them with anti-evolution preaching, banners, and tracts. My last report shared a brief video of such an event, but last week we went to Cagayan de Oro College campus, and the attack was record breaking. Our crew passed out 4,000 Big Daddy Chick tracts in forty minutes. WOW! Somebody should call Guinness World Records...ha. We still have two more campuses to go, but we are waiting for more Chick tracts and the end of Christmas break. Chick Publications has been very kind and generous to us; may our good Lord richly bless them.

Cagayan De Oro College

Thanksgiving, Filipino Style

In the USA, the celebration consists of turkey and pie (of course) and maybe the first snow and (of course) football, but my partner Pastor James Manalo took over this past Sunday to show us how the Filipinos celebrate this great day. The church was superbly decorated with four freshly cut banana trees bearing fruit, green coconuts suspended from the rafters, corn on the stalk, and other fruits and flowers...really beautiful. The folks had been giving towards this for several weeks, so we feasted on lechon baboy, or a whole roasted pig (including the head). A good time was had by all...yes, all. All was a record attendance of ninety souls. Good preaching and much music finished the great day. Praise the Lord!

A New tool, thanks, Lord!

The good Lord supplied a very nice, new tool...another people hauler. It is a fifteen passenger Mitsubishi L300, with only 33,000 km, or 20,000 miles, on it. Wow, the good Lord surely does give good gifts.

Ronald Sald
SWAT Team for Christ

A Filipino Lawnmower, Good Gas Mileage!

